(c) All timekeepers must maintain contemporaneous time entries for each individual listed in the Monthly Fee Statement in increments of tenths (1/10th) of an hour.

2. Each person receiving a Monthly Fee Statement shall have twenty-one (21) days after service thereof to review it and object to it (the “Objection Deadline”). Upon expiration of the Objection Deadline, each Professional may file and serve on the Notice Parties a certificate of no objection or a certificate of partial objection, whichever is applicable, after which the Debtor is authorized to pay each Professional an amount (the “Actual Interim Payment”) equal to the lesser of (i) eighty percent (80%) of the fees and one hundred percent (100%) of the expenses requested in the Monthly Fee Statement or (ii) eighty percent (80%) of the fees and one hundred percent (100%) of the expenses not subject to any objection.

5. If the parties are unable to resolve the Objection within twenty-one (21) days after service thereof, then the affected Professional may either (a) file a response to the Objection together with a request for payment of the difference, if any, between the Actual Interim Payment and the non-objected to portion of the Actual Interim Payment made to the affected Professional (the “Incremental Amount”); or (b) forgo payment of the Incremental Amount until the next interim or final fee application, at which time the Court will consider and dispose of the Objection, if so requested.

6. The service of an Objection to a Monthly Fee Statement shall not prejudice the objecting party’s right to object to any fee application made to the Court in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code on any ground whether raised in the objection or not.

7. The decision by any party not to object to a Monthly Fee Statement shall not be deemed or construed as a waiver of any kind or prejudice that party’s right to object to any fee application subsequently made to the Court in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and applicable rules.

8. Parties may file at four (4) month intervals (the “Interim Period”) an interim fee application. The First Interim Period shall be for the period from the Petition Date to December 31, 2019. Each Professional seeking approval of its interim fee application shall file with the Court and serve on the Notice Parties an interim application for allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 331, of the amounts sought in the Monthly Fee Statements issued during such period (the “Interim Fee Application”). The Debtor shall request that the Court schedule a hearing on the Interim Fee Applications.

(a) The Interim Fee Application must include a summary of the Monthly Fee Statements that are the subject of the request and any other information requested by the Court and shall comply with the mandates of the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules, the Local Rules and the applicable Third Circuit law.

(c) The pendency of an Objection to a particular Monthly Fee Statement or Interim Fee Application shall not disqualify a Professional from the further payment of compensation or reimbursement of expenses, unless the Court orders otherwise.

(d) Neither the payment of, nor the failure to pay, in whole or in part, monthly compensation and reimbursement as provided herein shall have any effect on this Court's interim or final allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses to any Professionals.

9. Counsel for the Committee may collect and submit to the Debtor statements of expenses (excluding, however, for professional fees), with supporting vouchers, from members of the committee he or she represents, which expenses the Debtor shall pay in accordance with the foregoing procedure for monthly compensation and reimbursement of expenses to Professionals.

11. The Debtor shall include all payments to Professionals on its monthly operating reports, detailed so as to state the amount paid to Professionals.

12. All time periods set forth in this Order shall be determined in accordance with Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9006(a).

13. All fees and expenses paid to Professionals are subject to disgorgement until final allowance by the Court.
